Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Alternative Revolution Magazine W/Louise Cantwell Photography. I am a photographer from a small town in Scotland near Glasgow. I started photography nearly 7 years ago and I have never looked back. I am completely self-taught and I approach the process from a more emotive and fashion perspective than from a technical point of view As a teenager I became fascinated with alternative/gothic fashion and music and because of where I grew up there were not many opportunities to explore these genres. I always wished I were artistic but I could not draw or paint. I always wanted to be musical but I never had the patience or skill to learn to how to play anything properly and like most things in my life I would give up on this pretty quickly. I have a very vivid imagination and extremely complex and vivid dreams. I have a creative mind but previously had no way of expressing myself or my ideas. When I started portrait photography I very quickly realized I had found a way to make these ideas...
