Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .That you are being tested is unavoidable. Is God wrong by testing us? Not at all! It is His fatherly concern for Adam and Eve that led to His warning about the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. God has no time to play around or spring surprises on anybody. He warned Adam and Eve upfront, because He did not want them to lose their holiness and immortality. But because of unbelief, Eve sought an excuse and got one from Satan, through the serpent. Eve got sold to the serpent's suggestion, not because of the serpent's persuasiveness, but because she had doubts in her heart that what God said would happen, would indeed happen. We pick out certain things in the Bible that we would have preferred to see written some other way. And we modify the word of God to suit our lives instead of modifying our lives to conform to the word of God. It is easier for us to deal with life according to the word of God, as it is written in the Bible if we keep in mind that His word is unchangeable. What He said at the time He created the first man is still valid today and will continue to be through eternity. None of us has any say in it. If we do not have the wisdom to understand what He is saying and abide by it, how then can we have the wisdom to make what He said better? If we have the same capacity as God to make things what we want them to be, why would any of us need God? And would...
