Excerpt: . chapter xii. results, commercial and scientific, of our expedition. In reviewing the results of our expedition, it is fair to give precedence to its commercial features, as our chief mission was strictly a commercial or industrial one. We shared the fate of the great majority of industrial pioneers--to return empty-handed; but although the direct results were negative, a careful study of the expedition will be useful to those who contemplate further ventures in Antarctic regions, indicating the paths which must in future be avoided, and also the rational way to an exploitation of these waters. The most important negative result is the proof--bought at a cost to Norwegians of about, 5,000--that Right whales do not at present congregate in summer-time in the Antarctic pack-ice or along the shores of South Victoria Land in paying numbers from the whaler's point of view. That...
