The distance between the two was not very great, and those on the deck could see three figures clinging to the broken timbers. These were Fletcher and Fanny Taylor, who were a second time to be preserved almost miraculously from drowning, and Captain Socrates Jones. The engineer and the two stokers had disappeared, but the boy lay groaning on what remained of the cabin floor, much scalded by steam, and cut in several places with splinters of wood and iron. I guess I am a ra-al snorter and kin lick this river! exclaimed Captain Jones, as he saw the boat approaching from the Queen of the West. I say, strenger, how high up did yer go? -Higher than I ever shall again, replied Fletcher. Well, we busted like a clap o thunder, and have naked em up some; so don t be down-hearted, strenger. At mat moment the Flying Alligator passed them at full speed, and her captain gave a loud cheer as he swept by his beaten rival. I don t like racin ; but if I don t lick that boat when I ve got another, I m bound to eat the skipper. The boat name alongside the remains of the ambitious little steamer, and the three white people were at once transferred to it. They had nearly reached the Queen of the West when...
