By Marek Halter

Random House USA Inc, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 201 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Sarah s story begins in the cradle of civilization: the Sumerian city-state of Ur, a land of desert heat, towering gardens, and immense wealth. The daughter of a powerful lord, Sarah balks at the marriage her father has planned for her. On her wedding day, she impulsively ees to the vast, empty marshes outside the city walls, where she meets a young man named Abram, son of a tribe of outsiders. Drawn to this exotic stranger, Sarah spends one night with him and reluctantly returns to her father s house. But on her return, she secretly drinks a poisonous potion that will make her barren and thus un t for marriage. Many years later, Abram returns to Ur and discovers that the lost, rebellious girl from the marsh has been transformed into a splendid woman the high priestess of the goddess Ishtar. But Sarah gives up her exalted life to join Abram s tribe and follow the one true God, an invisible deity who speaks only to Abram. It is then that her journey truly begins. From the...
