If you shall be pleased to like what we say herein, probably we will call again after our Family Reunion of two years hence. To most of you, this will be an initial pamphlet; but there has been one previous effort of this sort in our family. After the first Brigham Reunion, which was held in Chicago during the World s Fair, Dr. B. A. R. Brigham (who was then the Historian of our clan) issued a published account of that gathering, which met with hearty approval and appreciation from all who were privileged to receive a copy. (It was the proposition, that all who should join the Association then being formed would receive a copy of the proceedings gratis. For my own poor part, to help along what seemed to be a very deserving labor of love, I paid $5.00 for five memberships. I am sorry to say, that I was the only one of five, who thus became members, who ever received a copy of the Report, which was truly enough thereafter printed. I remark this with something of reluctance, in a spirit neither of boast nor animosity; simply as a matter of fact.) Judging from the foregoing, the circulation of the former pamphlet must have been very circumscribed. Indeed, so thoroughly are we convinced of this, that we are herein setting out in full the Historical Article delivered at that first meeting; in...
