Date :2005-07. Gymnastics mind. although the content is different from the well-known Canadian sociologist Maïke Lu where the theory. the book is entirely from the point the idea of ??starting to form. In other words. I think all around than the line of contact. each individual phenomenon. a new vision of individual. the individual is more important things. and we hold these things that a strong individual interest and become involved. TV and the mind gymnastics at this point with similar characteristics. The back of the book published in various issues of one hundred college students to answer a result. these students are at Aoyama Gakuin University and other chest ambition students. Their answers reflect the current era of television with the characteristics of young people. including free-spirited. ingenious answer after another. so I have been a great inspiration. In addition to the prior statement about the book appeared in television program content is based on the freedom of my imagination. and the broadcast time is not necessarily consistent with the actual TV show.
