Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It was the 60 s, when cops didn t receive a lot of respect. Bradley Stokes always wanted to be a policeman but as a juvenile he messed up. He didn t kill anyone but he wasn t proud of his life. Pulling knives on kids his age, he was kind of a bully. And why not? His dad was a bully who used to punch him, call him crazy, and remove any resemblance to a father who cared about his sons. Through a faithful friend, Carlos, he redirected his life toward being a useful member of the community, helping others who came from similarly dysfunctional families as he did. Parents who didn t subscribe to Dr. Spock s thinking in raising your child without spankings, but not taking it to the other extreme. Wrapped up in their own self-pride, perverting parenthood and perverting Christianity. Yet, Bradley still felt that tug in his heart, that longing to fill that empty void that God created to draw all to himself, those that would listen for his voice. Desiring more to life than being a victim, Bradley answered the call to go forward one Sunday night, to dedicate his life to serving the Messiah as his personal Lord and Savior. He didn t want to be an evangelist but he did want to make a difference in the world, help others to leave their lives of crime and self-sabotage and do something important, maybe raise up others to a potential that would lead them to do something great and fulfilling. That was how he felt now anyway. With little direction he found a local church that preached the Word of...
